Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Subdivisions (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2006, made applicable in cases under the Bankruptcy Code by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling of designated electronically stored information, books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to producing any or all of the designated materials or inspection of the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect, copy, test, or sample the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production, inspection, copying, testing, or sampling. Such an order to compel shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection, copying, testing, or sampling commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) (A) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(B) If a subpoena does not specify the form or forms for producing electronically stored information, a person responding to a subpoena must produce the information in a form or forms in which the person ordinarily maintains it or in a form or forms that are reasonably usable.

(C) A person responding to a subpoena need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) A person responding to a subpoena need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or to quash, the person from whom discovery is sought must show that the information sought is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) (A) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

(B) If information is produced in response to a subpoena that is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has and may not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved. A receiving party may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. If the receiving party disclosed the information before being notified, it must take reasonable steps to retrieve it. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT. Failure of any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued. An adequate cause for failure to obey exists when a subpoena purports to require a nonparty to attend or produce at a place not within the limits provided by clause (ii) of subparagraph (c)(3)(A).

EXHIBIT A

38. The terms “and” and “or” shall be construed both disjunctively and conjunctively so as to bring within the scope of this request all documents which might otherwise be considered to be outside of that scope.

39. The word “each” shall mean both “each” and “every”, and the word “every” shall mean both “each” and “every,” as appropriate in order to bring within the scope of this Request documents which might otherwise be beyond its scope.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

The following general instructions apply to each request set forth herein.

40. Each request seeks production of each Document, in its entirety, without abbreviation or expurgation, and all drafts and non-identical copies of each Document.

41. If any Document requested herein was formerly in Your possession, custody or control (or that of Your representative) and has been lost or destroyed or otherwise disposed of, You are requested to submit in lieu of any such Document a written statement (a) describing in detail the nature of the Document and its contents, (b) identifying the person(s) who prepared or authored the Document and, if applicable, the person(s) to whom the Document was sent, (c) specifying the date on which the Document was prepared or transmitted and (d) specifying the date on which the Document was lost or destroyed and, if destroyed, the conditions of and reasons for such destruction and the person(s) requesting and performing the destruction.

42. If any Document requested herein is withheld on the basis of any claim of privilege, You are requested to submit, in lieu of any such Document, a written statement (a) identifying the person(s) who prepared or authored the Document, and, if applicable, the person(s) to whom the Document was sent or shown, (b) specifying the date on which the Document was prepared or transmitted, (c) describing the nature of the Document (e.g., letter, telegram, etc.), (d) stating briefly why the Document is claimed to be privileged or to constitute work product, and (e) identifying the paragraph of this request to which the Document relates.

43. If a portion of an otherwise responsive Document contains information subject to a claim of privilege, those portions of the Document subject to the claim of privilege shall be deleted or redacted from the Document, the instructions in the preceding paragraph shall be applicable, and the rest of the Document shall be produced.

44. All Documents are to be produced as kept in the usual course of business or are to be organized and labeled to correspond with the categories in this request. The method for production of each category is to be identified at the time of production. Documents are to be produced in full and unexpurgated form.

45. Each page of each Document should be numbered consecutively. A request for a Document shall be deemed to include a request for any and all file folders within which the Document was contained, transmittal sheets, cover letters, exhibits, enclosures, or attachments to the Document in addition to the Document itself.

46. Documents attached to each other (physically or via electronic mail) should not be separated.

47. In producing the requested Documents, even though the requests are directed to "You," furnish all Documents that are available to You, including Documents in the possession of any of Your officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, advisors, investigators, accountants or consultants and not merely such Documents in Your possession.

48. The requests that follow are to be regarded as continuing, and You are requested to provide by the way of supplementary compliance herewith, such additional Documents as You may hereafter obtain, which will augment the Documents now produced in response to the requests below. Such additional Documents are to be produced at the offices of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP promptly after Your receipt thereof.

49. At a future date, Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. ("LBHI") and/or Lehman Brothers Special Financing ("LBSF," and together with LBHI, "Lehman") may request the production of additional Documents not herein requested, including information revealed as a result of information produced pursuant to this request or information revealed by other parties during the 2004 process or discovery in a proceeding.

50. At a future date, Lehman may request to depose individuals based on information revealed during this request.
